FORT KNOX—UNITED STATES BULLION DEPOSITORY

Gold Vault Rd., Fort Knox, KY 40121

This is on the right hand side of the road approximately 8 miles from the distillery. The first gold arrived in Fort Knox, Kentucky, in 1937 by U.S. Mail. Since then, the United States Bullion Depository at Fort Knox has stored precious metal bullion reserves for the U.S. government. It currently holds 147,341,858.382 fine troy ounces of gold.

Not surprisingly, no visitors are permitted at the bullion depository.
